1.0 INTRODUCTION

In accordance with section 102 of the County Government Act, counties are required to develop plans that guide their budget-making processes. Counties develop and implement County Integrated Development Plans (CIDPs) and Annual Development Plan that guide their development agenda and budget-making process. The CIDPs and ADPs are developed through a participatory process that involves various stakeholders, including the public, and are aligned with the national development agenda.

1.1 Constitutional and legal provisions for public participation

Article 1(2) of the Constitution of Kenya, 2010 state that all sovereign power belongs to the people of Kenya. The people may exercise their sovereignty directly or through their elected representatives.

Article 10 (2) a, b and c state that the national values and principles of governance include; democracy and participation of the people; inclusiveness; good governance, integrity, transparency and accountability.

Article 27 of the Constitution guarantees equality and non-discrimination. Hence, public participation should ensure equality and non-discrimination.

The Public Finance Management Act Section 207 stipulate that County Governments are to establish structures, mechanisms and guidelines for citizen participation.

County Government Act Section 91 state that the county government shall facilitate the establishment of modalities, and platforms for citizen participation.

1.2 The rationale and purpose of engaging the public

The rationale of public participation is based on the constitutional foundation which places sovereign power on the people of Kenya, and summarized as follows:

- ❖ To Strengthens democracy and good governance through direct engagement of public in decision making process.
- ❖ To increase accountability by ensuring that governments are held to account for their actions and are responsive to the interest of citizens.
- ❖ Enhances process legitimacy. Public participation legitimizes implementation processes. Therefore, public participation in the budget process is essential for promoting good governance, accountability, and effective service delivery. It enables citizens to play an active role in decision making, ensuring that the government's policies and programs are aligned with their needs and aspirations.

1.3 Public Participation on ADP 2025/2026

The objective of public participation is to recognize direct exercise of the sovereign power of the people through citizen participation. The objective is pursued through a framework in which the County citizens legitimately and equally have a say in decisions affecting their lives. Mandera

County Government recognizes that public participation in the planning and budget process is a fundamental constitutional principle that results into enhancement of citizen and county government relations, ownership of projects and programmes, appropriate prioritization as well as empowerment of the citizens. It also encourages generation of innovative approaches, strategies and actions to particular county development issues leading to efficiency and effectiveness in County development process.

Invitation for public participation on ADP 2025/2026 was sent through various platforms and media to invite the public to the scheduled public fora. The invites were placed in the daily nation and, further disseminated through social groups, social networks, and local radio stations. The consultative meetings were held across all the six constituencies in Mandera County. The invitation was open to the public, stakeholders and all other interested parties to public participation fora on 12th August 2024

The participants were accorded opportunity to attend public forum in person and contribute to the proposed ADP 2025/2026 or contribute through written submissions that were sent to the County Economic Planning, Mandera County Government, emailed to economicplanning@mandera.go.ke. Comments were to be received on or before August 16th, 2024.

Public participation on ADP 2025/2026 was held across all the six constituencies on Monday 19th August 2024.

3.0 Challenges Encountered during 2025-2026 ADP public participation

- i. Public demands for incentives to attend public participation forums.
- ii. Citizen ignorance on their roles to participate in policy development and decision making processes.
- iii. Public concerns of under implementations of their priority programmes and projects.

4.0 Recommendations

- i. Conducting public sensitization and civic education in local radios to educate the public on their roles to participate in policy development, priority programmes identification, validation, and decision making processes.
- ii. Implementation of key projects and programmes identified with stakeholders' consultations should be prioritized.
- iii. Public participation forum should be extended to ward level to give those at grassroot level the opportunity of validating their priority programmes and projects.
